What Clients Say

“Patricia and her team are always on top of things. They are constantly looking for ways to provide better care in the most cost effective way. Simply put, Maxwell Senior Care is a game-changer for their clients.”

~R.L. San Francisco Bay Area

“You have helped me when I really needed intensive support to care for my parents. In some ways, I think I was actually more of your client than they were. I appreciate all of the guidance, resources, and input about my parents’ care that you provided.”

~K.S. San Jose

“I hired Maxwell Senior Care Services when I realized that my father’s needs were much greater than I could provide for from a distance of 700 miles. I found Patricia’s advice to be solid. She has a good heart, good experience, and good skills. Patricia and her team have been an invaluable asset to my family.”

~J.L. Oregon

“Patricia has provided my clients with exceptional service, handling complex and challenging situations with professionalism and sensitivity. I will use her services on other cases in the future and would not hesitate to recommend her.”

Geriatric Care Managers assist in a variety of areas including:

Communications

- Keeping family and medical professionals informed as to the changing needs of the client.
- We act as a liaison to families providing crisis intervention and mediation services. This is especially helpful when families are engaged in long-distance care giving for a loved one.

Home Care Services

- Assisting with home care service selection.
- Screening, arranging and monitoring in-home help or other services.

Housing

- We help families evaluate options and assist with moving an older person to an appropriate retirement complex, assisted care home, or nursing home—as needed.

Medical Management

- Attending doctors appointments.
- Facilitating communication between doctor, patient, and family.
- Monitoring adherence to medical orders and treatments.

Social Activities

- Providing opportunities for the client to engage socially and intellectually in a variety of recreational and cultural activities that enrich the quality of life.

Quality of Care ~ Quality of Life Our Passion and Our Commitment

“Our seniors have given so much. I am passionate about making sure they get the best possible care they need and deserve—regardless of age and other limitations. I’m committed to helping them live life to the fullest.”
